gest year and both sides are making mands a change of atmosphere. plans to go in to win. There are the most flereely contested one the assigning him the place reserved for offices excepting County Clerk, Asses- ciation, in session this week at Depects of winning are so encouraging that there will be a field full of candidates for almost every office.

Judge W. P. Winfree has not yet decided whether or not he will stand system effectually, yet gently, when for re-election for county judge. He son is understood to be a candidate and there is also some talk of J. W.

The office of County Clerk is con sidered a very desirable one by both sides. Maj. Breathitt has held this place for many years, but the Major is believed to have a cinch on the postoffice next July and if his expectations in this line pan out, he will perhaps not be a candidate. In that vent his son, Harvey Breathitt, would The trial of A. M. Pulliam at doubtless want his father's mantle to fall on him. It is also said that both Polk Cansler and R T. In fact there is not much opposition being heard from any source. The Republicans seem to have overlooked this office in their slate-making. It may be that this place on the ticket is being saved for Bob Lander, the colored lawyer. Prof. F. H. Renshaw, the present School Superintendent, will probably again be the Republican nominee and Prof. S. L. Frogge, of Lafayette, f he wants the place, will be the Democratic candidate.

M. A. Littlefield will of course attempt to break his will, which diswent to succeed himself as Assessor. So far, no Democratic candidate has been heard from, but there will probably be plenty of them by-and-by. The Surveyor's office pays little or nothing and there are no candidates on either side. The office is now charged with complicity in the killing filled by Juo. W. Armstroug, a Republican, who would perhaps take it again.
